"Best Latin America Emerging Markets Fund 3 Years" (besten lateinamerikanischen Emerging Markets-Fonds) laut Acquisition International und "Most Innovative Hedge Fund Investor of the Year 2016" (innovativster Hedgefonds-Investor des Jahres 2016) gemäß Wealth & Finance

JERUSALEM -- 25.01.2017 --

Der Adar Macro Investment-Fonds von Adar Capital Partners (ACP) erzielte im Jahr 2016 eine Rendite von 33,5% und erhält Anfang 2017 zwei weitere internationale Awards: "Best Latin America Emerging Markets Fund 3 Years" (besten lateinamerikanischen Emerging Markets-Fonds) dem digitalen Magazin Acquisition International zufolge und "Most Innovative Hedge Fund of the Year 2016" (innovativster Hedgefonds des Jahres 2016) gemäß der Fachzeitschrift Wealth & Finance.

Der von Adar Capital Partners verwaltete Adar Macro Fonds hat ebenfalls seit seiner Einführung im August 2013 eine kumulierte Rendite von 54,04% erzielt, indem er seinen Weg als einer der rentabelsten Fonds weltweit fortführen konnte. In diesem Jahr wird Adar Macro sein Investorenportfolio voraussichtlich erweitern und von gegenwärtig 850 Millionen US-Dollar auf eine Milliarde US-Dollar wachsen.

Laut Zev Marynberg, President und CIO von Adar Capital Partners, "... ist einer der Schlüssel für unseren Erfolg die Priorität, die wir der Fundamentalanalyse jeder Investition ausgewählter Positionen einräumen, sowie ein hohes Maß an Geduld. Mit einer mehr als 25-jährigen Erfahrung auf unterschiedlichen Märkten konzentrieren sich gegenwärtig 70% der Investitionen von Adar Capital Partners auf Lateinamerika und 30% auf Europa. ACP verfolgt aufmerksam die wirtschaftlichen Entwicklungen in Lateinamerika, einer Region mit keinem allzu hohen Kapital-Leverage in der die Mehrzahl der Anteilseigner aus staatlichen Unternehmen stammt und deren Unternehmen 40% des gegenwärtigen Portfolios repräsentieren.

Zev Marynberg, président et directeur des systèmes d'information, Adar Capital Partners, déclare : « Une des clefs de notre succès réside dans la priorité que nous accordons à l'analyse fondamentale de chaque investissement dans des positions très sélectives, ainsi que dans la patience dont nous faisons preuve. Notre stratégie est de combiner des titres à revenus fixes, des actions, des produits dérivés, des titres en devises étrangères et des titres de la dette publique, tout en restant très attentifs à la volatilité des flux de capitaux, à l'inflation, à la liquidité du système et de nos propres investissements. »

Avec plus de 25 années d'expérience sur les marchés, Adar Capital Partners consacre actuellement 70 % de son portefeuille d'investissement en Amérique latine et 30 % en Europe. ACP suit de près les développements économiques en Amérique latine, une région sans grand effet de levier et où la majorité de l'actionariat vient d'entreprises étatiques, et dont le groupe d'entreprises représente 40 % du portefeuille actuel.

"Best Latin America Emerging Markets Fund 3 Years" according to Acquisition International and "Most Innovative Hedge Fund Investor of the Year 2016" according to Wealth & Finance

JERUSALEM --

The Adar Macro investment fund from Adar Capital Partners (ACP), achieved a return of 33.5% in 2016 and begins 2017 with two new international awards: "Best Latin America Emerging Markets Fund 3 Years" according to the publication Acquisition International and "Most Innovative Hedge Fund of the Year 2016" according to the magazine Wealth & Finance.

The Adar Macro fund, managed by Adar Capital Partners, has also achieved an accumulated return of 54.04% since it was launched in August 2013, consolidating its trajectory as one of the most profitable funds in the world. This year Adar Macro expects to expand its portfolio of investors and grow from its current $850 million to $1 billion.

In the opinion of Zev Marynberg, the President and CIO of Adar Capital Partners, "one of the keys to our success is the priority we give to the fundamental analysis of each investment in very selective positions, as well as patience. Our strategy is to combine fixed income, equities, derivatives, foreign exchange and public debt, as well as being very attentive to the volatility of capital flows, inflation, the liquidity of the system and of our own investments."

With over 25 years of experience in the markets, Adar Capital Partners currently focus 70% of its investment portfolio on Latin America and 30% on Europe. ACP follows economic developments closely in Latin America, a region with not very much leverage and where the majority of shareholdings are from state enterprises, and whose group of companies represent 40% of the current portfolio.

ACP verfolgt aufmerksam die wirtschaftlichen Entwicklungen in Lateinamerika, einer Region mit keinem allzu hohen Kapital-Leverage in der die Mehrzahl der Anteilseigner aus staatlichen Unternehmen stammt und deren Unternehmen 40% des gegenwärtigen Portfolios repräsentieren.

18:26 Fundo de Investimento Adar Macro Ganha 2 Prêmios e Alcança um Retorno de 33,5% em 2016

JERUSALÉM--25 jan, 2017-

O fundo de investimento Adar Macro, da Adar Capital Partners (ACP), alcançou um retorno de 33,5% em 2016 e começou 2017 com dois novos prêmios internacionais: "Melhor Fundo de Investimento de Mercados Emergentes da América Latina por 3 Anos", segundo a publicação Acquisition International, e "Investidor mais Inovador de Fundos de Cobertura do Ano de 2016", segundo a revista Wealth & Finance.

O fundo Adar Macro, gerenciado pela Adar Capital Partners, também alcançou um retorno acumulado de 54,04%, desde que foi lançado em agosto de 2013, consolidando a sua trajetória como um dos fundos mais rentáveis do mundo. Este ano, o Adar Macro espera expandir seu portfólio de investidores e crescer de seus US$ 850 milhões atuais para US$ 1 bilhão.

Na opinião de Zev Marynberg, presidente e diretor de TI da Adar Capital Partners: "Um dos fatores para o nosso sucesso é a prioridade que damos à análise fundamental de cada investimento em posições muito seletivas, bem como paciência. Nossa estratégia é combinar fundos de renda fixa, ações, derivativos, câmbio e dívida pública, bem como estar muito atento à volatilidade do fluxo de capitais, à inflação, à liquidez do sistema e dos nossos próprios investimentos".

Com mais de 25 anos de experiência nos mercados, a Adar Capital Partners atualmente tem 70% de sua atenção voltada ao seu portfólio de investimentos na América Latina e 30% na Europa. A ACP acompanha de perto a evolução econômica na América Latina, uma região com pouca influência e onde a maioria das participações é de empresas estatais e cujo grupo de empresas representa 40% do portfólio atual.

Sobre a Adar Capital Partners

Fundada em 2011, a Adar Capital Partners Ltd. fornece consultoria de investimentos para investidores institucionais, escritórios familiares e fundos de investimentos privados, principalmente na América Latina e Europa. In the opinion of Zev Marynberg, the President and CIO of Adar Capital Partners, "one of the keys to our success is the priority we give to the fundamental analysis of each investment in very selective positions, as well as patience. Our strategy is to combine fixed income, equities, derivatives, foreign exchange and public debt, as well as being very attentive to the volatility of capital flows, inflation, the liquidity of the system and of our own investments."

With over 25 years of experience in the markets, Adar Capital Partners currently focus 70% of its investment portfolio on Latin America and 30% on Europe. ACP follows economic developments closely in Latin America, a region with not very much leverage and where the majority of shareholdings are from state enterprises, and whose group of companies represent 40% of the current portfolio.
